Evernote for Windows does not have any way for the user to play with these settings. I would suggest you either be very conservative with this kind of changes, or you add a feature where users can change the theme, and keep a "Classic" theme in there unchanged. I'm using Evernote for its functionality, and have been for years.

This needs to happen for Windows users. Great that Dark Theme is out for Android, iOS, OSX, but still missing for Windows. Evernote is the ONLY app in my workflow that doesn't support dark mode in Windows. A lot of the "duplicate threads" also requesting this seem to now be deleted. Please make this happen.
